

Technology Endorsement

Learning Outcomes

The department of Educational Foundations, Research, Technology and Leadership (ERFTL) has established the following learning outcomes for candidates completing the Technology Endorsement.

Learning Outcome 1 : Candidates use research, theory, and wisdom of practice to inform their pedagogy.

(Part A of CF 1 : Reflective practice is Reasoned)

Learning Outcome 2: Candidates employ reflective professional judgment across all facets of their practice.

(Part D of CF 1: Reflective practice is Reasoned)

Learning Outcome 3: Candidates apply ethical and legal practices in performing their professional responsibilities.

(Part A of CF 2: Reflective practice is Ethical)

Learning Outcome 4: Candidates strive to meet the educational needs of all candidates or clients in a caring, non-discriminatory, and equitable manner.

(Part C of CF 3: Reflective practice is Fair)

Learning Outcome 5: Candidates think systematically and analytically about professional practice and professional decision-making.

(Part A of CF 4: Reflective practice is Logical)

Learning Outcome 6: Candidates are proficient in the procedures, techniques, and methods of Educational Technology.

(Part A of CF 5: Reflective practice is Effective)